

Karen Fitzpatrick
SENIOR MANAGER

Karen is a Senior Manager at Simione Healthcare Consultants with over 14 years of progressive finance and management experience in home health and hospice.

Previous experience includes Executive Director of Clinical and Administrative Services at a for profit agency, Vice President of Finance at large not for profit agency in MA and Director of Finance at a large not for profit agency in Rhode Island.

Her responsibilities included full fiscal management including budget preparation and presentation, monthly integrated financials, supervision and direction of annual audit and cost report. She was also responsible for all financial reporting and analysis as well as accounts receivable management.

Karen is a member of Home Care and Hospice Financial Managers Association, as well as the National Association for Home Care & Hospice.