

William J. Simione, Jr.
FHHC
FOUNDING MEMBER

William J. Simione, Jr. is a Founding Member of Simione Healthcare Consultants. Bill has provided the home care and hospice industry with expert guidance and support for more than forty years.

In addition to providing consulting services ranging from financial analysis to corporate strategic planning, Bill has conducted workshops and seminars across the country for the American Hospital Association, National Association for Home Care, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, National Health Care Lawyers Association, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and numerous state associations.

Bill is a member of the NAHC Board of Directors, NAHC's Legislative Action Committee, NAHC's Universal Advocacy Advisory Board, and NAHC's Annual Meeting Committee. He is a member of NAHC's Prospective Payment System and Managed Care Task Force. He currently serves as chairperson of the Home Health Financial Managers Association (HHFMA) and the Home Health & Hospice Political Action Committee. He was appointed as a fellow for NAHC's Foundation for Hospice and Home Care. He was also the past Chairperson of a Focus Group for Reimbursement for Health Care Reform.

Bill's service to the greater health care community includes Chairperson of the Board of Gaylord Specialty Hospital. Gaylord Hospital is a nationally renowned, not for profit, long term acute care hospital that specializes in the care of and treatment of medically complex patients, rehabilitation and sleep medicine. Bill has also served on the Boards of two publicly traded companies and served on their Audit & Special Committees. Bill is a graduate of Boston College. He is on the courtesy faculty of Yale University's School of Nursing Graduate Program.