

Robert V. Simione
CPA, SENIOR MANAGER

Rob is a Senior Manager at Simione Healthcare Consultants with several years of finance and accounting experience. Rob is a graduate of Villanova University with a BS in accounting and is a CPA in the State of New York.

In addition to financial consulting expertise, Rob has been instrumental in developing and supporting Simione's industry-leading benchmarking system, The Simione Financial Monitor.

While working for Simione, Rob has developed a great understanding of how important benchmarking is to the industry and what factors will affect them. Rob also works with IT software providers to develop relationships with other clients within the Homecare industry. Rob has worked on developing financial, operational, marketing and IT benchmarks that are important in the daily business of homecare agencies. Rob has also published articles in Eli's Homecare Magazine and the Pennsylvania Homecare Association's Monthly Newsletter on the importance of financial benchmarks to the home care industry.

Prior to working for Simione, Rob worked for Price Waterhouse Coopers as a Senior Tax Associate, preparing and reviewing federal and state tax returns for various entities. Rob has experience working on corporate and partnership tax issues. He also has experience working on audits for many Fortune 500 companies. He is experienced in FAS 109, FAS 123R, FIN 48 and tax attribute valuation allowances.

He has also been the recipient of a PWC Chairman's Award, recognizing excellence in teamwork and collaboration.
