

Robert V. Simione
CPA
Director, Financial Consulting

Rob is Director of Financial Consulting at Simione Healthcare Consultants, where he focuses on building solutions to manage, analyze and operationalize data resources related to benchmarking, cost reporting, market intelligence and financial risk assessment. Prior to leading collaborative activities with a variety of information technology companies for Simione, he served more than 10 years in financial consulting, and in corporate and tax accounting.

A CPA in the State of New York, Rob has been instrumental as an interim financial executive for home care and hospice agencies and health networks, and in developing the firm's industry leading benchmarking tool, the Simione Financial Monitor.

While working for Simione, Rob has developed a great understanding of data resources to support effective collaboration among information technology vendors and providers of home-based care. Through his extensive work as a financial consultant and interim chief financial officer, he has worked closely with a wide variety of organizations to develop financial, operational, marketing and IT benchmarks that are critical to both their daily business and long-term financial planning.

Prior to his years with Simione, Rob worked for Price Waterhouse Coopers, where he received the Chairman's Award for excellence in teamwork. There, he served as a senior tax associate, gaining experience with financial accounting and reporting standards for corporate and partnership taxes, auditing, equity compensation, and tax attribute allowances. He graduated from Villanova University with a B.S. in accounting.