

Jo, who has been with Exact Recruiting since 2005, joined the Simione team in 2017.

A University of South Florida alumnus and a previous teacher, Jo is our lead go-to person on recruiting efforts for all retained and executive level searches. She works diligently on these positions, from acquiring them to building a strategy to fill them. Jo has held many roles at Exact Recruiting, and has been a very successful full-cycle recruiter and key account manager. Jo's experience recruiting for the home care and hospice industry has allowed her to develop an amazing network of talent, which has, in turn, benefited our clients. Customer service is of great importance to Jo, and she is also extremely detail oriented. Jo has a keen ability to source and spot talent. Both clients and candidates enjoy working with Jo.
