

Mark N. Tsiamas
CPA, CVA
PRINCIPAL

Mark Tsiamas is a Principal at Simione Healthcare Consultants with more than 25 years of experience helping home care and hospice organizations improve business performance.

A Certified Public Accountant and Certified Valuation Analyst, Mark has developed due diligence and valuation programs for all categories of home health and hospice businesses. He has worked with many clients for acquisitions and dispositions of home health and hospice agencies, developing financial models, and creating and maintaining informational databases using cost report data, as well as performing process reviews of agencies' financial support departments. Mark also has many years of experience as an interim financial executive for large hospital-based and proprietary home care providers.

Mark is a member of the National Association for Home Care and Hospice, Home Care & Hospice Financial Managers Association, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA), and the New York State Society of CPAs. He has conducted workshops on alternative home care business structures, Medicare reimbursement, cost reports, cost analyses of home care programs, and telehealth programs. He has authored articles on valuation and financial guidelines for telehealth in major trade publications.

Mark is a graduate of Pace University, Lubin School of Business, with a BBA in Accounting and Taxation.
