

Angela Grant, BSN
Manager, Executive Search

Angela joined Simione Healthcare Consultants in 2018 to focus executive and non-executive search with Exact Recruiting, a Simione talent solution, and was appointed as Manager of Executive Search in 2019. Drawing on her extensive background in nursing, education and community service, she brings strong clinical expertise and client relations skills to her work, with firsthand knowledge of career change and relocation dynamics as both a professional nurse and military spouse.

A resident of Tampa, FL, she spent 12 years in acute care, family medicine and urgent care settings, building a solid foundation in the areas of cardiology, primary care, emergency and critical care in North Carolina, Virginia, Idaho, and Japan. She also served three years as a substitute teacher in primary and secondary schools, including experience in autistic and special needs classrooms, in Florida and Virginia.

Angela is a long-time volunteer in her community, including serving meals for homeless individuals at Trinity Café in Tampa, assisting in school activities, and teaching religious education. She earned a BSN from Spalding University, in her native Louisville, KY.
