

Rachel Hawkins
RN, BSN, BCHH-C, COS-C
Senior Manager

Rachel Hawkins, RN, BSN, joined Simione Healthcare Consultants as a Senior Manager in 2015 to support clinical consulting for mergers and acquisitions. A resident of Indiana, Hawkins has nearly 20 years of healthcare and home care management experience, including oversight of multiple branches and corporate departments ranging from field operations to corporate leadership functions. Her expertise includes operations, financial management, clinical care, and training and program development in home care and critical care.

Most recently, Hawkins was Corporate Director of Clinical Affairs with Almost Family Inc., since 2002, where she led compliance for 250 home health agencies in 15 U.S. states, served as the regulatory liaison, and spearheaded accreditation and training initiatives. During her tenure, she also co-led care practice improvements to support a pay-for-performance initiative and National Home Health Compare Quality Initiative to decrease acute care admissions.

During 1996-2002, Hawkins served as Director of Clinical Services for home care and a nurse case manager for Floyd Memorial Hospital and Health Services, New Albany, IN. She also served as an ICU staff nurse at Jewish Hospital, Louisville, KY, from 1994-96.

She is a member of the National Association for Home Care and Hospice, and a past member of the Kentucky Home Care Association (Quality Improvement Committee), and the Indiana Association of Home and Hospice Care (Regulatory, Legislative, and Quality Improvement Committees).

Board certified in home care coding, Hawkins earned a BSN degree from Spalding University, Louisville, KY, where she was the recipient of the Mary Zollman Award for Administrative Leadership in Nursing.
