

Ryan Mattson
DIRECTOR, RECRUITING & OPERATIONS
Exact Recruiting,
a Simione Talent Solution

Ryan, who has been with Exact Recruiting since 2009, has a degree in architecture from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

That led him into a design and programming-related career, managing accounts for a software company and developing organizational, customer service and communication skills made Ryan's transition into healthcare recruiting seamless.

Ryan manages key client accounts, while helping home care and hospice professionals find positions that best suit their career goals. Ryan played an important role on our Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) team, and has now taken on many new responsibilities. Ryan oversees our contingency search business line, as the point person for our clients. He focuses on all communications and follow-up with clients, and oversees our recruiting team. Ryan strives to offer clients the best possible customer service. Candidates find him genuine, and a true resource in their search for career growth. Ryan's work ethic and communication style sets him apart from other recruiters.
