

Thomas E. Boyd
Reimbursable Services

A highly respected member of the home care and hospice industry for more than 36 years, Tom is a nationally recognized expert in Medicare reimbursement. He serves as Simione's Vice President for Reimbursable Services, and is based in Rohnert Park, California.

A Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) and Certified Healthcare Financial Professional (CHFP), Tom was inducted into the Hall of Fame at the 2013 National Association for Home Care and Hospice (NAHC) Financial Managers Conference for his "drive to secure professionalism in the financial management of home health and hospice, his ever present willingness to support the home care community, his never ending passion for accurate cost reporting, his unique and highly informative educational programs, and his deep belief in a team concept."

Prior to joining Simione Healthcare Consultants in 2014, he was principal with Boyd & Nicholas, The Cost Report People®, a consulting firm he co-founded in 1993 that grew to become one of the leading financial consulting firms for home care and hospice agencies. With expertise in cost reporting, financial analysis, due diligence and accounting, Tom served as an intermediary auditor for 12 years and a consultant for five years before founding his own company. He is a frequent national, state, and regional speaker on home health financial and compliance issues.

Before earning his MBA from St. Mary's College in California, he earned a B.A. in management and accounting from Sonoma State University. He is a member of the Home Care and Hospice Financial Managers Association (HHFMA) work group, the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, and the U.S. Chess Foundation.
